The Fragrant Autumn of Flowers and Fruits

This Modern Musical Ballet

Repertoire Framework and Core Imagery

- Theme: Centered on "golden autumn harvest", integrating the beauty of nature, the joy of labor and youthful emotions.
- Style: Combining modern musical and ballet, emphasizing the lyricism of body language and music, with bright colors (based on bright red, dotted with red, yellow and blue).

Scene-by-Scene Narrative and Dance Design

1. Prologue: The Harvest Field

- Setting: Endless fields with blooming flowers, fluttering butterflies and birds.
- Dance: A group dance by international students from the Agricultural and Animal Husbandry College, showing youthful vitality through dynamic group movements. The music is lively, integrating traditional instruments and orchestral music.
- Imagery: Personification of flowers (e.g., actors holding flower props), symbolizing the integration of diverse cultures.

2. Ode to Labor in the Flower and Fruit Orchard

- Setting: Amidst green mountains and clear waters, young people prune fruit trees and pick flowers/fruits.
- Dance:
 - Duet dance (male and female gardeners cooperate in pruning, with gentle movements like twisting vines);
 - Group dance ("Harvest Machinery Dance", simulating mechanical rhythms with body movements, showing the harmony between technology and nature).
- Transition: In the grassy floral workshop, people pack flowers and fruits. The group dance forms a flowing scene through the action of passing crates.

3. Struggle Against Storms

- Setting: A sudden rainstorm hits; young people rush to harvest in wind and rain.
- Dance:
 - Solo dance (the lead dancer struggles and climbs in thunder and lightning, showing tenacity);
 - Duet dance (the hero and heroine support each other in the storm, with lifting movements symbolizing protection);
 - Group dance (harvester lights simulate lightning, and the formation of workers highlights unity).
- Dramatic Conflict: The confrontation between nature and humans, ending with "bright lights at midnight" to show victory.

4. Bonfire and the Harvest of Love

- Setting: A bonfire party in the afterglow of the setting sun; lovers gallop on horses on the grassland.
- Dance:
 - Duet dance (embracing under the tree with tender movements; galloping on the grassland, using rein props to show riding);
 - Group dance (bonfire circle dance, integrating tap dance steps, with fire light projections creating a "sparkling lights" effect).

- Climax: Harvest vehicles shuttle back and forth, fruit crates pile up like towers, and all actors sing and dance together, implying the harvest of fruits, friendship and love.

Artistic Treatment Suggestions

- Music Design: Combine symphony and electronic sound effects, e.g., using percussion to heighten tension in the storm scene, and adding folk chorus in the bonfire scene.
- Stage Technology: 3D projections to change scenes (e.g., sea of flowers, heavy rain), and mechanical stages to realize the lifting of fruit trees.
- Costume Colors: Main color is bright red; workers' costumes gradient with scenes (field green, orchard gold, bonfire red).
